

We invite you to the 3rd International Psychotherapeutic Symposium

which will take place at
Faculty of Social Studies of Masaryk University
26th and 27th May 2011

“What and how can we explore in the process of psychotherapy?”
Or
“From where do we know that, what we think, we know about psychotherapy?”

Key note speakers:

Heidi Levitt

Department of Psychology, The University of Massachusetts Boston, USA

Ladislav Timulák

School of Psychology, Trinity College, Dublin, Ireland

Dan Pokorny

Universität Ulm, Germany

Mario Pfammatter

Department of Psychotherapy, Uni Hospital of Psychiatry, University of Bern, Switzerland

Further presentations e.g.:

David Skorunka (LF UK, Hradec Králové):

Family therapy and research; from distant position to accurate exploration“

Jiří Jakubů (CETERA, Prague):

„Coping processes in psychotherapy: research outcomes“ (How do psychotherapists experience and cope with psychotherapy failures?)

I. Čermák, R. Hytych, R. Karpíšek, J. Roubal, T. Řiháček, Z. Vybíral, L. Zatloukal

Symposium convenors: Zbyněk Vybíral & Jan Roubal.

Heads of preparatory committee: Jakub Černý & Jitka Balášová.

Information, applications, fees – check from 1st February 2011 on website:

<http://psychoterapie.fss.muni.cz/symposium11>

You can already ask for more information on mail:

info.symposium@gmail.com

